

CHAIRMAN

Gerardo Landaluce Calleja

Palencia 1965

ACADEMIC BACKGROUND

- Bachelor's Degree in Law - University of Granada.
- Master in International Management - ESADE Business School in Barcelona.
- Graduate in Senior Management for Companies and Leading Institutions - San Telmo Business School.

PROFFESIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Private banking Vice-president serving at Banco Español de Credito (BANESTO) international area in Miami and New York.
- In 1996 he joined the Port Authority of Algeciras Bay (APBA) undertaking responsibilities in the strategy, business development, commercial and communication fields. Before being appointed as APBA Chairman, he has served as Development and Commercial Director, member of the Board of Directors and of the Algeciras Bay Navigation and Port Council.
- Representative of the Spanish Port System in the European Sea Ports Organization (ESPO) Intermodal, Logistics and Industry Committee.

- Member of Medports (Mediterranean Ports Association) International Institutions Relationship Committee and Executive Committee.
- Collaborator Teacher in the Port Administration Master of Cadiz University and in the Intermodal and Port Planning & Administration Master of the Spanish Port Board Port University Campus.
- He takes part in international conferences and seminars within the maritime, port and logistics sectors at national and international level.

REMUNERATION

In accordance with the provisions of art. 20 Three of Law 6/2018, of July 3, on General State Budgets for 2018, the Secretary of State for Budgets and Expenditures of the Ministry of Finance, has established by Resolution – Order HAP/1335/2012, of June 14, Official State Bulletin BOE 21/06/2012 - the salary update applicable to the Chairmen and Chairwomen of the Port Authorities.

In compliance with the same, the annual remuneration of the Chairman of the Algeciras Bay Port Authority consists of basic annual remuneration of €79,147.74 and a variable remuneration of €20,934.96.