

MANAGING DIRECTOR

José Luis Hormaechea Escós

Bilbao 1954

ACADEMIC BACKGROUND

- M.S. Civil Engineer by the Madrid School of Advanced Civil Engineering.
- Postgraduate Degree in Business Administration by the International Institute of Business Administration (Deusto University) and Graduate in Senior Management by San Telmo Institute, Seville.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Extensive professional experience, having started his career working as Planning Director in Técnicas Reunidas S.A., in the field of industrial project construction in Indonesia as from 1980 to 1986.
- Director of Traffic and Transport Service at Expo'92 State Company, starting in 1986.
- In 1993 he joined the Port Authority of Seville, being Managing Director from 1996 to 2002.
- Before joining Algeciras Bay Port Authority, he worked as Managing Director for a private company dedicated to port activities in Africa.
- Current position: Managing Director of Algeciras Bay Port Authority since July 2004. Member of the Board of Administrations of the Algeciras Bay Port Authority and of the Logistics Network of Andalusia and Madrid Dry Port.

- Since 2013 Spanish Delegate in the European SeaPorts Organization (ESPO) General Assembly.
- Since 2018 Member of the Mediterranean Ports Association (MEDports) Executive Committee.

REMUNERATION

In compliance with the Instructions sent by the Executive Committee of the Interministerial Remuneration Committee (CECIR), on the "Conditions and procedures for the modification during the year 2018 of the remuneration of the labor and non-civil servant personnel of the Public Business Schools and the rest of the Public Organizations and Entities" and updates of subsequent application, the remuneration related of the General Manager of the Algeciras Bay Port Authority consists of a basic annual remuneration of €80,739.27 and a variable remuneration of €29,951.32.